

CURRICULUM VITAE Oliver Buschan

Oliver Buschan (1972), lic. rer. pol.,
Head of Retail Banking & Capital Markets,
Member of the Executive Board of the Swiss Bankers Association (SBA)

Oliver Buschan is an economist and has many years of experience at various banks and in financial market supervision. He has comprehensive knowledge of both the banking business and financial market regulation. He began his career at Credit Suisse, where he held various roles in IT, controlling and as an investment consultant before joining FINMA in 2000. He spent 11 years at FINMA in various leadership positions, after which he returned to the financial sector in 2011, where he led a number of complex reorganisation, innovation and digitalisation projects. Most recently, he was the group-wide Head of Corporate Governance at UBS, where among other things, he was responsible for organisational development projects and UBS Group's overall policy framework.

June 2021